MEMORANDUM FOR : Project Director of Operations

Attention: Intelligence Requirements Officer

SUBJECT : Briefing Activities by Members of Intelligence
Requirements Committee

25X1A
1. Col. Geary called me this morning to advise that a [redacted] who is on Mr. Reber's Requirements Committee, is about to brief his own boss (Army G-2) regarding Project Aquatone. It is further assumed that this briefing will then be passed on by G-2 Army to Gen. Maxwell Taylor (Army Chief of Staff).

2. It is my understanding that the Army, Navy, and Air Force and other representatives sitting on these committees have no authority to brief their bosses or others concerning our activities. I believe that this situation of these committee members starting to brief their bosses should be looked into and that if they are not to pass information they have upward through channels, they should be so informed immediately in order that we can maintain control of all personnel who are knowledgeable of this project.
